

We want to make you aware of a special scholarship opportunity that is available: our Multicultural Leadership Scholarship.

Scholarship Award

The Multicultural Leadership scholarship award is $3,000, and is renewed annually based on scholarship recipient meeting the eligibility requirements.

Eligibility

Scholarship recipients must be accepted to Spring Arbor University as full-time student, live on campus, must have previously held one or more leadership positions, be an American minority student (not an international student) and must be willing to play an active role with the Office of Intercultural Relations (OIR). Successful applicants have included members of racial and ethnic groups that have been historically underrepresented.

Application Process

Students must submit an application, resume, official transcripts, ACT or SAT scores and a 1-page personal statement. The personal statement should include a description of how the applicant will make a difference in the Spring Arbor University community and contribute to the diversity mission. Applications must be completed and returned to the SAU Office of Admissions, postmarked by February 15.

Please understand that this scholarship may represent only the first portion of the financial aid that you may receive, including federal, state and Spring Arbor University funds. There are students who pay little to nothing in out-of-pocket costs for tuition, fees, and room and board. To find out just how affordable a Spring Arbor University education may be for you, please complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible. It is available online at www.fafsa.gov. You can find out how much financial aid you may receive by using our Net Price Calculator online at www.arbor.edu/estimate.

If you have any questions about this opportunity, please contact your admissions representative at 800.968.0011.
